 ■ DAHLONEGA

Dahlonega, the heart of Georgia wine country, is where the best of art, cuisine and nature merge in a mountain setting. Site of the first major gold rush in U.S. history in 1828, it is blessed with natural beauty by way of the Chestatee and Etowah Rivers, the Chattahoochee National Forest and the Blue Ridge Mountains. Stepping lively are a 19th-century town square, an entrepreneurially vibrant artisan, shopping and restaurant scene and a variety of B&Bs, country inns and lodges, as well as festivals, wineries, spas and wedding venues that take full advantage of the layered peaks of the Blue Ridge. This is a mountain village with major metropolitan verve.
