

Beechwood Inn

Clayton, Georgia

Relax at the Beechwood Inn

Georgia's premier wine country inn provides rustic elegance in a romantic setting overlooking the town of Clayton.

Filled with antiques and primitives, yet warm and inviting, Beechwood Inn is altogether homey and comfortable. The Inn was voted "Number One Inn in North America for a Weekend Escape" and the "Best Inn for Wine Connoisseurs." Food and wine enthusiasts will want to experience wine weekend packages and culinary events, when celebrated winemakers and chefs from around the world collaborate to expand guests' epicurean horizons. Explore mountain villages, raft the Chattooga River, hike to a waterfall or drive along bucolic country lanes. History buffs will want to visit the Foxfire Museum. Close to three mountain golf courses. Everyone will enjoy relaxing in the Inn's 100 year old gardens with a good book and a glass of wine.
