

At Mark of the Potter we continue to create family traditions. Here you will experience the intersection of art and nature where local artists produce and sell American made functional pottery. History lives on in this 1930's corn grinding grist mill that overlooks the Soque River where our giant "pet" trout happily await a feeding from our customers.

mark of the potter

Since 1969

www.markofthepotter.com

706-947-3440