

Helendorf

RIVER INN SUITES
& CONFERENCE CENTER

The Helendorf River Inn is an American Military owned and operated hotel in Alpine, Helen, Georgia. Celebrating 47 years as a mountain community hotel with a Bavarian feel, the Helendorf offers access to a wide array of nearby attractions —ranging from Native American burial sites, to wineries, to 200+ specialty and import shops offering everything from gem mining to cuckoo clocks.

The Helendorf River Inn is centrally located to the Chattahoochee National Forest, river rafting, horseback riding, canoeing, fishing, mountain biking, hiking, camping, hunting and waterfall-watching and that's just a few of the activities available.

Our hotel has an outside enclosed heated pool and coin laundry facility. The hotel is ideal for family vacation, family reunions, business meetings, business retreats, business association meetings, church retreats, military reunions, weddings, wedding receptions, honeymoons or a quick weekend getaway. The hotel is adjacent to the Festhalle where Oktoberfest, Bavarian Nights of Summer, 4th of July activities, Helen to the Atlantic Hot Air Balloon Race and other festivals are held or headquartered.
