CHATTOOGA SECTIONS:

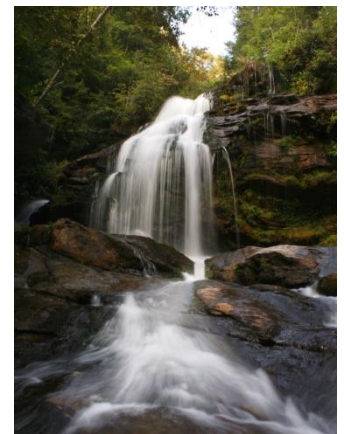

Beginner Fun – Chattooga River Section III Incredible scenery, interspersed with stretches of top-notch whitewater, will highlight this generally relaxing float trip. Chattooga River Rafting on Section III is a perfect fit for someone who wants to experience the exhilaration of Chattooga whitewater rafting with plenty of time for soaking in your remarkable surroundings as well. Section III is the perfect outing for first time rafters, families, and those who want to guide their own raft. This trip lasts a total of 6 hours with a riverside lunch. Minimum age is 10 years old.

High Adventure – Chattooga River Section IV Looking for some excitement and high adventure? Crash through the class IV+ rapids and then we'll stop long enough to view the astounding waterfalls of Stekoa and Long Creek Falls as they cascade into the river, just to let you catch your breath! Because all of our trips are fully guided no experience is necessary- The only requirement is the need for high adventure and big fun! This trip lasts a total of 7 hours with a riverside lunch. Minimum age is 12 years old.

Chattooga River Overnight Trip – 2 days of Rafting and Camping Combine the best of both worlds and you have Chattooga whitewater rafting on Section III and IV along with an overnight camping experience in the Sumter National Forest! Day one you'll experience the beauty of the Chattooga River's Section III then our expert camp chefs prepare a meal of steak or locally caught trout along with a big campfire. Day two of your overnight trip will consist of the demanding the rapids of Section IV of the Chattooga River. Minimum age is 12 years old.

WHAT TO WEAR: Wear clothes that you don't mind getting wet. Avoid wearing cotton because it doesn't dry as well. Synthetic materials are preferred. Do not wear flip flops! The river tends to eat them. Wear water shoes or old tennis shoes that you don't mind getting wet. We advise that everyone wears sunscreen.
