Welcome

Discover Perry, Where Georgia Comes Together

Welcome to Perry. Experience for yourself our tradition of warmth and graciousness as you discover the exciting things to see and do.

Perry is home to the award-winning Georgia National Fairgrounds and Agricenter, Middle Georgia's center for meetings, shows, livestock events, horse shows, fairs, RV rallies, concerts, sporting events and more. The Fairgrounds hosts more than 900,000 visitors a year, including the Georgia National Fair each October and the Georgia National Rodeo in February.

Downtown Perry is a must see! The renovated downtown area is a charming main street with boutique shopping and a down-South, restful atmosphere.

From historic architecture and a museum to the Go Fish Education Center to a vibrant calendar of events, there is always something fun to do in Perry.

Stop in at the Perry Welcome Center to pick up brochures and a map, grab a cup of coffee and load up on our insider tips for what to see and do, where to eat and where to stay. The Welcome Center features an off-leash dog park, RV dump station, free Wi-Fi, picnic pavilion, and friendly, smiling faces.

Shopping & Dining

Find a variety of locally-owned shops along Carroll Street, the Village Shops, Macon Road, and the surrounding blocks of the charmingly restored historic district. Brand name groceries, clothing stores and salons are also plentiful at Perry Market Place, Perry Crossroads Shopping Center, and Paradise Shoppes of Perry, easily accessible from I-75.

Our locally owned eateries serve up heaping plates of ribs, fried chicken and greens. Or just order a cup of coffee and the soup du' jour at a downtown café as you relax and people-watch. Come for the Food Truck Fridays series and enjoy live entertainment, spirits, a "Kids Zone," and an assortment of local and regional food truck dishes. And, since Perry is a stop on Georgia's Brews & Q's Trail, come for a tasting tour of some of Georgia's best BBQ joints and sauciest plates.
