

National Infantry Museum and Soldier Center

[M-SAT 9am-5pm SUN 11am-5pm]

The first world-class museum to pay tribute to the U.S. Army Infantryman and his 230-plus years of service.

- ★ Heritage Walk
- ★ 3D IMAX Theatre
- ★ Rifle Range Simulator
- ★ The Fife and Drum Restaurant
- ★ Soldier Store Gift Shop
- ★ World War II Street

★ HONORING THE INFANTRYMAN ★

NATIONALINFANTRYMUSEUM.COM

Open Daily M-SAT 9am – 5pm | SUN 11am–5pm

Admission

Admission is free, thanks to the generous donations of visitors who are moved by the sacrifices of our servicemen and women. There is a small fee for the IMAX theater and simulator attractions.

IMAX 3D Theatre® at Patriot Park

Walk in space. Explore the ocean depths. Experience cinema like only IMAX can offer. Go to patriotparkimax.com or call 706.507.IMAX.

The Fife and Drum Restaurant

An upscale, American bistro featuring classic American fare served by a staff well versed in Southern hospitality. Open Sunday - Tuesday 11am-4pm and Wednesday-Saturday 11am-9pm.

Heritage Walk

This moving tribute to servicemen and women is engraved with personalized, commemorative pavers and lined with each state flag.

Rifle Range Simulator

As kids of all ages try their hand in a weapons firing simulator just like the Army uses, they'll learn the lesson that freedom is not free.

World War II Street

Visit authentically recreated Company Street from the 1940s, featuring a chapel, barracks, mess hall and Gen. Patton's quarters.

Soldier Store Gift Shop

Located in the museum lobby, the Soldier Store is an essential stop that offers a wide assortment of souvenirs.

1775 Legacy Way
Columbus, Georgia 31903
706.685.5800

NATIONALINFANTRYMUSEUM.COM