Mystic Grill, Covington

Snap a pic at this familiar setting for fans of The Vampire Diaries, if you're lucky, you might even catch a glimpse of the cast and crew grabbing a bite to eat.

Luther Williams Field, Macon

The film 42 tells the essential story of Jackie Robinson, who may have played in Brooklyn, but he was born in Georgia. Stand at the gates of this historic field and take in the life of the baseball legend.

Tybee Island Pier, Tybee Island

Stop for a moment and listen to the soft song of the ocean from the Tybee Island Pier where Miley Cyrus brought Nicholas Sparks' The Last Song to life.

Swan House, Atlanta

Visit the Swan House at the Atlanta History Center - better known to fans around the world as President Snow's Mansion in The Hunger Games: Catching Fire and Mockingjay Part I & II.

Porsche Experience Center, Atlanta

Swing by for a test drive and get your picture made at the Avengers' headquarters, as featured in Captain America: Civil War.

Chippewa Square, Savannah

Have a seat on one of the benches in Chippewa Square and ponder the important questions of life - or just follow Forrest Gump's example and enjoy a box of chocolates.

Berry College, Rome

Put yourself in the game at Berry College in Rome - the campus' Swan Lake and the Ford Complex were used in major scenes in Remember the Titans.

Georgian Terrace, Atlanta

Visit the Georgian Terrace to live it up like Melissa McCarthy's hilarious character Diana from Identity Thief.

Woodbury Shoppe, Senoia

Find your safe haven and restock your survival supplies at the Woodbury Shoppe in (zombie-free!) downtown Senoia, home of The Walking Dead.
