The best part of our trip to Jacksonville:

We never got there.

Liberty County...amazing what you can do here.

Arts  Fort Stewart

We had heard a lot of good things about Jacksonville. The beaches, the shopping, the restaurants! But along the way, we stopped off in Liberty County for a bite to eat. What we found was a feast of authentic American culture—with delightfully unexpected touches. Blue Herons nestled in marsh grasses. Blooming Red Bud trees, a tribute to the fallen soldiers of the 3rd Infantry Division. Sumptuous dining at a riverfront tree house. A historic Liberty Trail that leads all the way to a fascinating Colonial past.

As for Jacksonville, we never got there. For the price of a fancy four star dinner, we spent a weekend in the natural, unpretentious Liberty County. Unbelievable, but true.
