

The River Cabin at GROVE RIVER RANCH

The new cedar and stone luxury accommodation cabin is nestled in a private wooded area on scenic Grove River Ranch, a 153 acre equestrian center and retreat in Banks County near Gainesville, Georgia.

The front deck features a screened hot tub porch and rocking chairs to enjoy the view of the pond and rolling green horse pastures.

To preserve the air quality of our rental units, no smoking or pets are allowed inside.

This luxury accommodation has two bedrooms with queen beds, two roomy bathrooms, linens and towels furnished.

Each bedroom opens out onto the deck overlooking small noisy waterfalls on Grove River.

The other side of the cabin has a grilling deck, patio table and chairs, and a fire pit bon fire area with seating.

The inside of the cabin features satellite TV with DVD and VHS players, central heat and air conditioning, vaulted living area ceiling, gas log fireplace, and a washer/dryer,

The full size kitchen is nicely stocked with cooking utensils and small appliances.

Guests may choose to relax on the back deck of the cabin overlooking the creek, or hike or ride the wooded trails, or enjoy the picnic areas on the river, or arrange to take horseback riding lessons, or do some fishing.

Stabling is available for those visitors who wish to bring their own horses. Camping with hookups, bunk house lodging, and primitive group tent camping is also available.
