Award-winning Hometown

Located only 25 miles from downtown Atlanta, the City of Lilburn is a convenient stop on the way to other area attractions like Stone Mountain Park. As home to the largest Hindu temple in North America, Lilburn celebrates a worldly culture with a small-town American atmosphere. Come find out why Money magazine ranked Lilburn as No. 5 on the Best Affordable Places to Live in America!

Things to see and do

BAPS Mandir - Undeniably one of the most beautiful and amazing structures in the world, the BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir is the largest Hindu temple outside of India. The Mandir is comprised of 34,000 individual stone pieces that were carved by hand in India, shipped to the USA, and assembled by volunteers in Lilburn like a giant 3-D puzzle. A visit to Lilburn is not complete without a tour to learn about Indian culture and architecture. Everyone is welcome at the annual Diwali fireworks celebration each fall! atlanta.baps.org

Yellow River Game Ranch - Meet indigenous wildlife such as deer, squirrels, and goats on this 24-acre ranch. Yellow River’s most famous resident is General Beauregard Lee, the renowned groundhog who forecasts an early spring or long winter on Groundhog Day. yellowrivergameranch.com

Historic Old Town - Grab a bite and a brew at the pub in Old Town, then take your to-go cup and check out the shops on Main Street. There’s an award-winning antique market, a music store that hosts backyard concerts in the summer, a tennis shop, and more. Don’t leave Old Town without a photo in front of the surprisingly life-like Tunnel Bridge Mural on Railroad Avenue!

International Cuisine - Lilburn is proud of its diversity. The city offers a variety of authentic international cuisine, from Greek, to Indian, to Dominican...you name it, it’s in Lilburn.

Places to play

Camp Creek Greenway Trail - This 4-mile greenway is a certified wildlife sanctuary along Camp Creek. Paved walkways and boardwalks lead you through the peaceful woods. Bicycles are available for rental at the trailhead near City Park.

Lilburn City Park - This 12-acre park in Old Town hosts community events. It features a rubberized walking track, lawn, playground, tennis courts, and one of the largest pavilions in Gwinnett County.

Bryson Park - One of Gwinnett County’s newest parks, Bryson has 72 acres of sports fields and courts, a playground, multi-use trail, and pavilion.

Lions Club Park - Baseball and softball fields are the focus of the 51-acre Lions Club Park, which also has a fantastic playground.
