The greatest variety of meeting venues in Augusta

Dining Famous for its outdoor verandah seating, The Verandah Grill's enticing menu of Southern favorites, premium steaks and seafoods, outstanding wine list and adjacent lounge have made it a favorite dining destination for locals and Masters champions alike. In the evenings, enjoy martinis and jazz on the verandahs.

Meetings Distinctive settings and unparalleled service are the hallmarks of a meeting at The Partridge Inn. Over 5,000 square feet of completely renovated event space will accommodate groups up to 250 in timeless elegance. Unique venues include a Charleston-style courtyard, rooftop penthouse & deck, opulent ballroom and four modern meeting rooms.

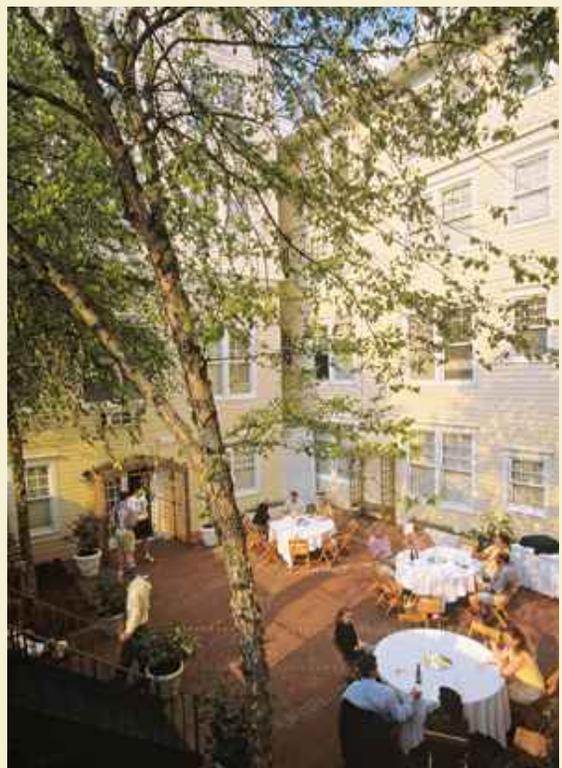

Celebrations From President Warren G. Harding's elaborate banquet in 1923, The Partridge Inn has continued to host Augusta's premier social gatherings and today continues to be the city's most memorable address for weddings, receptions, reunions and banquets.
