

Heroes Live Here.

Visit. Honor. Experience.

133 acres of valor

"Award for Education and History"

-Governor's Award for the Arts and Humanities

"THEA Award for Outstanding Achievement"

-Themed Entertainment Association

"The Smithsonian of the Army"

-NCO Journal

-On TripAdvisor

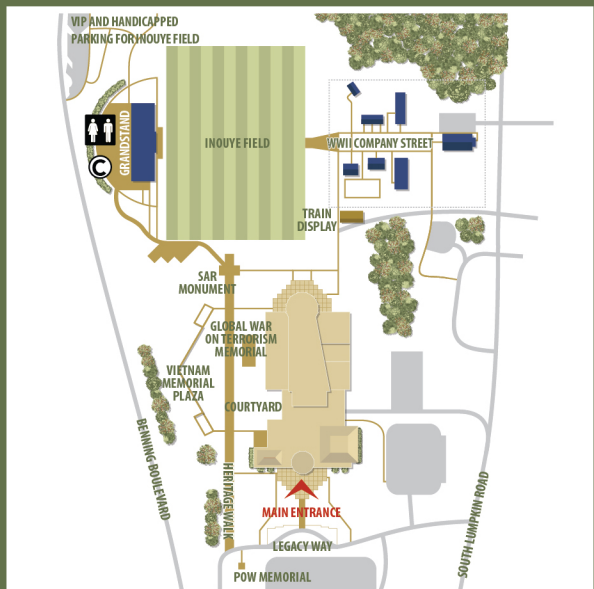

A place to experience. A place to remember.

Columbus | Fort Moore, Georgia

nationalinfantrymuseum.org

Come experience for yourself why the National Infantry Museum was voted the Best Museum in America four consecutive times!

Experience this 200,000 square foot, 133-acre national treasure complete with Skydiving, HUMVEE, and Helicopter Virtual Reality simulators, a complete set of WWII era buildings including General Patton's own sleeping quarters, granite monuments as far as the eye can see, and world class galleries which must be seen to be believed.

The whole family will find something to remember among the thousands of priceless artifacts which tell the history of America through the eyes of our most treasured national resource, the American Infantry Soldier.

HOURS OF OPERATION

9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday
11 a.m. - 5 p.m. Sunday

1775 Legacy Way | Columbus, Georgia 31903
706.685.5800

NATIONALINFANTRYMUSEUM.ORG