Meet the Owner
Elizabeth Trimble

I have taught special education in Georgia for 15 years. Owning this house is a joy. Every time I go there I feel like I discover a new hidden treasure. Meeting my guests and finding out what appeals to them in the area is so much fun. No cabin in the mountains of north Georgia or condo at the beach would do. I had to have my cottage in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. It is the perfect combination of charm, comfort, modern convenience, and renewal. I have found it. I love being here to enjoy a glass of local wine, peruse the antique stores, hike, read, and spend time with the people I love.
