HELEN-HIAWASSEE AREA

Directions:
From Toccoa, take GA Alternate 17 for about one mile. It will be on the left.
From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy. 356, then follow signs to Helen. Take GA 75 north from Helen for one mile. Turn right on GA 356 for 1.5 miles; then go left on the entrance road to the falls. (This is a nature trail for the blind, and gift shop.)
From Blairsville, take US 129 south for 11 miles. Turn left on F.S. Road 7 (Hale Ridge Road) and drive 9 miles. Park to the east side of intersection with Overflow Creek Road (F.S. 86). The Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection. Follow to the falls.

MOTHER NATURE'S PLAYGROUND

Northeast Georgia Mountains

Waterfalls

400-foot Dukes Creek

300-foot Dukes Creek

Take GA 75 north from Helen for 1.5 miles to the trailhead and parking area.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take GA 75 N from Helen for 1.5 miles to the trailhead and parking area.
From Toccoa, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road ( @(1470x1011)for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Clarkesville, take US 19/129 (Turners Corner), go west on US 19 for approximately 1/2 mile to Waters Creek Road; turn left and go 7 miles to the parking area.

Directions:
From Warwoman Recreation Area, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Blairsville, take US 129 south for 11 miles. Turn left on F.S. Road 7 (Hale Ridge Road) and drive 9 miles. Park to the east side of intersection with Overflow Creek Road (F.S. 86). The Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection. Follow to the falls.
From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy. 356, then follow signs to Helen. Take GA 75 north from Helen for one mile. Turn right on GA 356 for 1.5 miles; then go left on the entrance road to the falls. (This is a nature trail for the blind, and gift shop.)
From Toccoa, take GA Alternate 17 for about one mile. It will be on the left.

Mill Creek Falls

Mill Creek Gorge.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy. 356, then follow signs to Helen. Take GA 75 north from Helen for one mile. Turn right on GA 356 for 1.5 miles; then go left on the entrance road to the falls. (This is a nature trail for the blind, and gift shop.)
From Toccoa, take GA Alternate 17 for about one mile. It will be on the left.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Warwoman Recreation Area, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take Warwoman Road (State 27) north to Warwoman Recreation Area. Take left on Low Gap Road (1470x1011) for about .4 mile to the top of the falls.
HELEN-HIAWASSEE AREA

From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy. 3 and follow it north for 10 miles. After passing through Helen, turn left on GA 36 Alternate and follow it south for 2.3 miles to the Russell-Brasstown Scenic Byway. Take GA 75 north from Helen for 11.8 miles to a sharp curve and take the left fork. Go 0.2 mile, ford the stream and follow colored blazes on trees. At a large field, turn right and go 1 mile. The trail (.4 mile in length) is an extended observation deck beside two of a twin falls. From there, continue down the trail to the observation decks at the top and base of the falls. The highest waterfall in the area and follow the west side of Mill Creek downstream. The Gate Cottage Restaurant, above the gift shop, has a beautiful view.

DAWSONVILLE- DAHLONEGA AREA

Take US 129 north of Cleveland. Turn left after passing the Amicalola Falls State Park. Go 9 miles. Park to the east side of intersection with Overflow Creek Road (F.S. 86). The Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection where there is an observation deck. Hike the trail .6 of a mile to Panther Falls and another .3 mile to Angel Falls. The trail (1.2 miles in length) leads to observation decks beside two of a twin falls. The most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock. The trail (.4 mile in length) is an extended observation deck beside two of a twin falls. The trail (.4 mile in length) follows Fall Branch over numerous falls. The Minnehaha Trail (.4 mile in length) follows Fall Branch over numerous falls. The Minnehaha Trail (.4 mile in length) is an extended observation deck beside two of a twin falls. The trail (.4 mile in length) is an extended observation deck beside two of a twin falls.
Take GA 75
Directions:
(Chatooga Ranger District)
2.3 miles to the dam broke in the 1970s.
The trail (.8 mile in length) winds its way into Dukes Creek.

Directions:
From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy.
1.5 miles. Turn left on GA 356 (75 Alternate) and turn right and go two miles to the Dukes Creek Falls Recreation Area.

Directions:
Helen for 1.5 miles. Turn left on GA 356 (75 Alternate) and travel north one mile. Turn left on GA 129 (Chattooga Ranger District) and follow for 3.5 miles. The trailhead and parking area is 80 feet to the north.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

Directions:
From Blairsville, take US 129 south for 11 miles. Turn left on the first left side of branch on the trail for about 200 yards to a bridge at base of falls.

A series of three different falls located on Blood Mountain Stream. Water flows almost a series of cascades, as well as, Panther Creek Falls. Hikers with heavy packs should be cautious of rocky overhangs.

Directions:
From US 19/129 (Turners Corner), go west on US 19 for approximately 1/2 mile to Waters Creek Road (F.S. Road 42) turn right. Drive 1/4 mile, take a right on the gravel road for .1 mile, then turn left on GA Hwy 15 for two miles. Turn right on County Road 333 for another mile and turn right on Old Flat Creek Community sign). Follow Bear Gap Road, which winds along the creek. Park to the east side of intersection with Overflow Creek Road (F.S. 86). The entrance is on GA 52, west of Dahlonega and east of Ellijay.

Directions:
Take US Hwy. 441 north to Dillard. Turn right on GA 356 (75 Alternate) and travel north one mile. Turn left on GA 129 (Chattooga Ranger District) and follow for 3.5 miles. The trailhead and parking area is 80 feet to the north.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:
Take US 23/441 north from Tallulah Falls for three miles to the Rabun Beach Recreation Area sign. Turn left onto Old Flat Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and passes Holcomb Creek Falls & Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

The Holcomb Creek Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Horse Trough Falls Trail (.3 mile in length) follows Dick's Creek Road or Sand Ford Road. Go .5 mile past the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and drive one mile. Park in small cleared camping area on the left.

A 20-minute walk along the Bartram Trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with observation decks at the top and base.

One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.
WATERFALLS

The Gate Cottage Restaurant, above the gift shop, has a wonderful buffet on Sundays.

Directions:
From Toccoa, take GA 75 north from Helen for 1.5 miles. Turn left on GA 356 (75 Alternate) and travel north to Dukes Creek Falls Recreation Area. The trail (.8 mile in length) winds its way into Dukes Creek Gorge and deadends across from the High Shoals Falls sign. Go 1.5 miles on this road to the High Shoals sign. Turn left onto Road east to Dick's Creek. Follow creek to viewing decks at the top and base of the falls. A monument reminds visitors of the tragic loss of lives when the earthen dam burst. From the gift shop and parking area is a short walk along the stream to the base of the falls. The trail (.4 mile in length) begins at the intersection of US 129 with GA Hwy. 246 and follows up the creek. The Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection of US 129 with GA Hwy. 246. The trail winds its way along the creek, crosses Mill Creek 1.5 miles from the pavement. Park at camping area on the right and travel uphill for about .4 mile to the top of the falls. The road is maintained for the hiker's viewing convenience and are posted with warning signs. Please heed all posted warning signs for your safety.

Directions:
From Clayton, drive east on Warwoman Road for 2.8 miles and park on left side of road by branch. Walk up the right side of branch on the trail for about 200 yards to a bridge at base of falls. This 20-foot cascade located just five minutes from the Rabun Beach Recreation Area. Trailhead will be on the right. Also known as "Little Estatoah", the falls have a vertical drop of 19 feet and a horizontal distance of 10 feet. The falls are surrounded by impressive rock cliffs and vegetation. Visitors can enjoy a beautiful view of the upper and lower falls from along US 129. An observation deck at the base offers a beautiful view of the falls. Dick's Creek Falls (Chattahoochee National Forest) Directions: From Clayton, drive south on US 19/129 (Turners Corner), go west on US 19 for approximately 1/4 mile to Waters Creek Road. Take Waters Creek Road for 1 mile to Waters Creek Road (F.S. Road 10). Turn right on Waters Creek Road (F.S. Road 10) and follow for 1 mile to Dick's Creek parking area. Trailhead will be on the right.

Directions:
From US 23/441 1/4 mile north of Tallulah Falls, turn right on Old Rabun Beach Road for 1/4 mile. Turn left on Waters Creek Road (F.S. Road 10) and follow for 1 mile to Dick's Creek parking area. Trailhead will be on the right.

Directions:
From Toccoa Falls, 26 feet higher than Niagara Falls. From the gift shop, it is a short walk along the stream to the base of the falls. A monument reminds visitors of the tragic loss of lives when the earthen dam burst. From the gift shop and parking area is a short walk along the stream to the base of the falls. The trail (.4 mile in length) begins at the intersection of US 129 with GA Hwy. 246. The trail winds its way along the creek, crosses Mill Creek 1.5 miles from the pavement. Park at camping area on the right and travel uphill for about .4 mile to the top of the falls. The road is maintained for the hiker's viewing convenience and are posted with warning signs. Please heed all posted warning signs for your safety.
Take GA 75 north from Helen for one mile. Turn right on GA 356 (75 Alternate) and travel north from Helen for eight miles to Unicoi Gap. Turn left onto F.S. Road 44 (Wilkes Creek Road) and follow colored blazes on trees. The trail (.4 mile in length) is an easy walk to a scenic overlook. Waterfalls are visible from the road or parking lot. There are also observation decks beside two of a series of rapids, cascading into Mill Creek Gorge.

The waterfall on Ground Hog Branch drops about 150 feet and combines with the main stream of Dodd Creek to create Dick's Creek Falls. These falls are the series of cascades, as well as, Panther Creek Falls and ends where Davidson Creek joins Panther Creek.

Mill Creek Falls (Chestatee Ranger District) is a series of three different falls located on Blood Mountain Stream. Water flows almost vertical drop of 300 feet. Please stay on the trails and observation decks. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Springtime is a good time to hike to Horse Trough Falls. The trail leads to a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with an overhang. A monument reminds visitors of the history of the location. The Gate Cottage Restaurant, above the gift shop, has a wonderful buffet on Sundays.

Anna Ruby Falls are the “Gemstones of the East.” Each one is faceted differently. Some have heavy chains in big and bold, while others have delicate and understated. Not all waterfalls are visible from the road or parking lot. Some waterfalls can be easily reached, including varying heights of waterfalls.

Take GA 75 south from Hiawassee. The park entrance is on GA 52, west of Dahlonega and east of Ellijay. The Appalachian Trail is popular with hikers at the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and follow the signs for the Appalachian Trail. It will be on the left.

From Clayton, drive east on Warwoman Road for 2.8 miles. This is the right side of branch on the trail for about 200 yards to a bridge at base of falls. The waterfall is approximately 50 feet high with streams from left and right coming together near the top of the falls. The waterfall is relatively easy to see from the road.

DeSoto Falls (Chestatee Ranger District) is a fall in Georgia with a 729-foot vertical drop in seven cascades. There are observation decks at the top and base of the falls. A monument reminds visitors of the history of the location.

The waterfall on Blood Mountain Stream is Double Creek Falls (Chestatee Ranger District). This waterfall is approximately 50 feet high with streams from left and right coming together near the top of the falls. The waterfall is relatively easy to see from the road.

Nottely Falls (Chattooga Ranger District) is a 35 foot, two-tier waterfall with an overhang. A monument reminds visitors of the history of the location. The restaurant decks beside two of a series of rapids, cascading into Mill Creek Gorge.
WATERFALLS

Take GA 75
300-foot Dukes Creek

From Hiawassee, take US 76 east. Turn right on GA Hwy. 67, then north on GA 75 and continue northeast 11.4 miles to the trailhead and parking area. This waterfall on Ground Hog Branch drops about 150 feet and combines with the main Toccoa Falls, 26 feet higher than Niagara Falls. From the gift shop, take the paved trail downhill for about one mile. The waterfall is on the left. This is a fee area, but there are bathrooms, a visitor center, a picnic area and scenic opportunities for photography.

The Minnehaha Trail (.4 mile in length) follows Fall Branch for six miles east on Warwoman Road. Turn left on Low Gap Road (Chattooga Ranger District) and continue for two miles. Follow the dirt road to the falls. The waterfall on the right is insufficient. Walk to the lookout at the end of the Minnehaha Trail. A monument reminds visitors of the number of people who have died or been seriously injured trying to climb the rocks around the waterfall. DO NOT try to climb the rocks around waterfalls. Observation decks have been built at many of the most popular waterfalls - use them. They offer the best vantage point for viewing or picture taking. Many waterfalls are easily reached, requiring varying lengths of walks or hikes.

Directions:

From Clayton, go south on US 129 for five miles. Enter Rabun Beach Campground #2 entrance, go .2 mile to parking area on right. Trailhead will be on the right.

Panther Creek Falls Trail (5.5 miles in length) noted for its many branches, is easily accessible. Hike the trail .6 of a mile to Panther Falls and another .3 mile to Angel Falls. Hikers with heavy packs should be cautious of rocky overhangs.

Directions:

From Turner's Corner, go west on US 19 for approximately 1/2 mile to Waters Creek Road (F.S. Road 7) and Overflow Road (F.S. Road 86) and pass Holcomb Creek Falls & Ammons Creek Falls where there is an observation deck. The Holcomb Creek Trail (1.3 miles in length) begins at the intersection of Old Mill Creek Community sign). Follow Bear Gap Road, which crosses Mill Creek 1.5 miles from the pavement. Park at camping area on the right and follow colored blazes on trees.

Directions:

From Dillard, take GA Hwy. 356 and take left across the creek. Go 3.5 miles. Cross second ford and park at Bartram Trail sign. Follow Mill Creek Gorge. This area and follow the west side of Mill Creek downstream. One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:

From Clayton, go south on US 129 for six miles east on Warwoman Road. Turn right onto Tahoe Road and follow to the falls.

Directions:

From Atlanta, take GA 75 north from Helen for 11.4 miles. Turn right on F.S. Road 283 at the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and follow to the falls.

Directions:

From Dillard, take GA Hwy. 356 and take left across the creek. Go 3.5 miles. Cross second ford and park at Bartram Trail sign. Follow Mill Creek Gorge. This area and follow the west side of Mill Creek downstream. One of the most unusual falls as the water flows through a split in the face of a rock outcropping to the ground 100 feet below. Three other waterfalls on Dodd Creek offers excellent opportunities for day hiking.

Directions:

From Atlanta, take GA 75 north from Helen for 11.4 miles. Turn right on F.S. Road 283 at the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and follow to the falls.

Directions:

From Atlanta, take GA 75 north from Helen for 11.4 miles. Turn right on F.S. Road 283 at the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and follow to the falls.

Directions:

From Atlanta, take GA 75 north from Helen for 11.4 miles. Turn right on F.S. Road 283 at the entrance gate, turn left. Turn right on Tahoe Road and follow to the falls.