

PLANTATION TOUR

PEBBLE HILL

Tour the Crown Jewel of Southern Georgia

Pebble Hill Plantation is a home rich in art, architecture, and history. An aura of timelessness surrounds this living museum. Visitors are welcome to tour this grand home and enjoy the art of such notables as John James Audubon, John Emms, Thomas Blinks, Sir Alfred Munnings, J. Clinton Shepherd, and many others.

The architecture is spectacular...The grounds are magnificent...The antique furnishings sublime. The overall impression one receives from this remarkable plantation is more felt than defined.

Come discover the beauty and grandeur for yourself. Come experience Pebble Hill Plantation.

Pebble Hill Plantation is located approximately 22 miles north of Tallahassee, Florida and approximately 55 miles west of I-75 Valdosta, Georgia (off Exit 16/ 84 West).

Located on 3,000 acres of piney woods, 80 of which are available to the public, Pebble Hill Plantation is the legacy of Elisabeth “Pansy” Ireland Poe, one of the greatest naturalists and humanitarians of the last century. Mrs. Poe bequeathed her magnificent home, gardens, art and antique collections to the Pebble Hill Foundation that owns and operates the estate today. Mrs. Poe specified that her beloved Pebble Hill be opened to the public, thus preserving for generations a glimpse of the plantation and the sporting way of life.
