

The Cannonball House

Mansion of the Old South

✿ AUTHENTIC Greek Revival architecture, built in 1853. ✿ House was struck by a cannonball during a Union Army attack on July 30, 1864. ✿ ANTIQUE furniture, gold-leaf mirrors and silver create an atmosphere of charm and elegance. ✿ LISTED on the National Register of Historic Places. ✿ FOUNDER'S parlors of Adelphean (Alpha Delta Pi) and Philomathean (Phi Mu) Societies recreated from the parlors at Wesleyan College where they began in 1851 and 1852. ✿ CHARMING English garden featuring seasonal blooms

ALSO AT THE CANNONBALL HOUSE...

At the rear of the Cannonball House stands a quaint two-story kitchen built of hand-molded brick. The upper level of this house formerly served as quarters for the house servants. Few structures of this type remain in the South today.

A Civil War military collection features officers' uniforms, company flags, swords and guns used by Georgians during the War Between the States.
